

The 1994 American Eagle Proof Coins.

Beauty, rarity, and a rich history — these are the qualities that make the American Eagle Proof Coins so desirable. No other coin offers the numismatist so much.

Time is running out.

This year, gold American Eagle Proof Coins are only available until December 31, 1994. Your order must be postmarked no later than that date.

A landmark in Eagle Proofs.

For the first time, all of the gold American Eagle Proof Coins will be minted at the West Point Mint. This is of special importance to those who wish to purchase the Four-Coin Set.

Low mintages mean enhanced collectibility.

Individual mintages for the 1994 American Eagle Gold Proof coins are the lowest of any collector coin currently offered by the U.S. Mint — with most under 55,000. And remember, if any one of the gold coins sells out, the Four-Coin Set will no longer be available.

Order now.

Don't miss your chance to add these special coins to your collection. Gold coin sales end December 31, 1994.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
UNITED STATES MINT
WASHINGTON, DC 20220

Dear Mint Customer:

Several weeks ago you received a package from the U.S. Mint about the American Eagle Proof Coins. Because of the landmark nature of the 1994 Eagle Proofs, I am writing again to our best American Eagle customers to urge you not to put off your purchase any longer.

December 31 is rapidly approaching. And you must keep in mind that the collectibility of Eagle Proofs will be the strongest in many years, because 1994 is the first time that all of the Gold Eagle Proofs have the "W" mark from the West Point Mint.

There is one more important fact I would like you to keep in mind as the limited sales period winds down. Mintage levels for these coins are strictly limited. The moment any one of the four gold coins sells out individually, the Four-Coin Set will no longer be available.

If you want them, if you need them to make your collection complete, then now is the time to place your order. Assure that the American Eagle Proof Coins become a part of your collection.

Sincerely,

Philip N. Diehl
Director
United States Mint

P.S. Time is running out. And this great moment in American Eagle Proof Coin history makes it even more important to order immediately.
